Dear Posey:

I am sure by this time you have received my wire. I cannot understand what happened. I told you very distinctly in all my correspondence that I wanted The Red Caps if it was at all possible to have them. I explained to you that they had given me some games and I certainly was not particular about giving my games to some one else and leaving the Red Caps idle. After I went to the trouble to explain how I felt to you, I was sure when I received your last wire you had placed the Red Caps some where else. When I received Mr. Greers letter telling me he was expecting to come to Daytona and play me Easter Sunday, there was nothing for me to do but welcome him. I was glad I had not ordered the placards. I had written Charleston however. I will write him again at this time, and tell him there must have been some mistake. I hope you will be able to find him another spot.

I wish you would write me what happened. I was anxious to cooperate with you, in your efforts to book the teams, but I also want to get the best attractions for myself. There is no doubt that Jacksonville will be the best attraction in Daytona Beach.

I would appreciate hearing from you, just what caused the misunderstanding. Hope you have things straight.

Very Truly Yours
